

A. William Roberts, Jr. & Associates

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

April, 11th 2017

Charleston SC. – AWR Trial Solutions and Global Legal Discovery are very proud to announce a partnership in providing comprehensive litigation services. These two steadfast companies have joined forces to offer a wide array of services spanning the entire litigation life cycle, from forensic document collection, electronically stored information (ESI) processing and document hosting, through court reporting and video services in the discovery phase, to war room support and trial presentation in the courtroom.

“We are committed to providing end-to-end solutions to our clients,” said David Roberts, President of AWR Trial Solutions. “ From the commencement of litigation through the verdict, partnering with Global Legal Discovery will help our clients navigate the complexities of e-discovery, thereby helping them save costs and win cases.”

Founder and CEO of Global Legal Discovery Manuel Kaloyannides reflected on the partnership by stating, “AWR shares the same commitment to customer service which is the foundation of our amazing 15 year success here at Global. In the discovery business the reality is that you are only as good as your last deliverable and that is how we run our business. AWR clearly embodies the same focus to customer commitment and we are proud to have them as a Partner.”
